

Webdriver Manager for Python

You already installed Splinter, which automates our web browser actions. To do this automation specifically in the Chrome browser, we need another tool named ChromeDriver. With the Webdriver Manager for Python package, we can easily use ChromeDriver.

Install Webdriver Manager for Python

In your terminal in your active coding environment, run the `pip install webdriver_manager` command.

© 2022 edX Boot Camps LLC